

LIFE UNDERGROUND EXHIBIT

What do kangaroo rats eat?

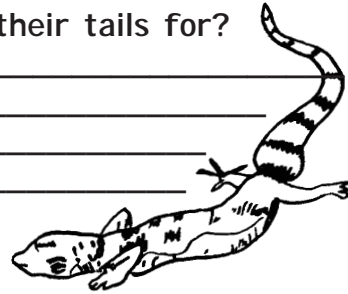

Where do ringtails rest by day?

LIFE ON THE ROCKS

Which nocturnal creature defends itself with a foul-smelling spray?

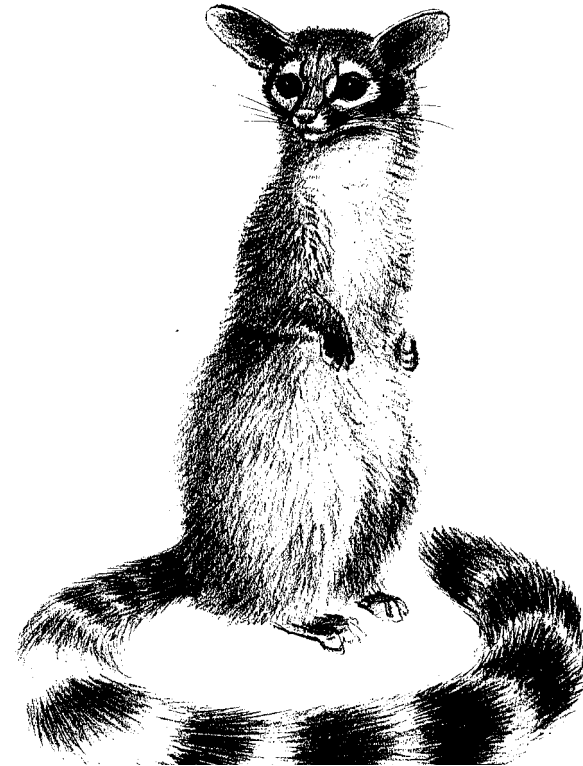

What do banded geckoes use their tails for?

What do elf owls eat?

Creatures of the Night

WHAT DOES "NOCTURNAL" MEAN?

REPTILE AND INVERTEBRATE ROOM

Which arthropod glows under ultraviolet light?

Why do desert millipedes stay underground during the day? _____

What is another name for millipedes?

EARTH SCIENCES CAVE

Replicas of these nocturnal, flying mammals "roost" in the entrance to the cave. They are _____.

You will also see special "houses" we've made for real ones to live in around grounds.

Which nocturnal rodent builds its nests in dry caves, where it stores collected "treasures" in its midden?

CAT CANYON

This non-feline resident of Cat Canyon is primarily nocturnal, but occasionally can be seen foraging for food during the day. Who is it?

RIPARIAN CORRIDOR (Hint: Don't forget to go downstairs!)

The beaver is North America's largest _____.
It can weigh up to _____ pounds.
Beavers feed on the _____,
_____, and _____ of large tree branches.

